

Jackson School

Mrs. Stella Hermanson

The Jackson School picnic will be held on the school ground on Sunday, May 31. Alice Frankenstein, Grace Matuseski, and Arlene Sabatke, are the committee in charge of games for this affair.—Arlene Sabatke and Grace Matuseski have subscribed to the Weekly Readers for summer reading.—Juanita Baker and Audrey Frey presented the best original stories in language class for the present month.

Joyce and Joan Sabatke celebrated their 10th birthday anniversaries May 25.—Doris Ann Bilke has had perfect attendance for the entire school year.—Beautiful bouquets have been brought to school by Alfred and Gerald Affeldt and Harold and Audrey Frey—Marvin Haase has visited school recently. Marvin will enter our first grade next fall.—In the May basket contest Doris Ann Bilke was the winner and Arlene Sabatke was the winner in the most 100's in the honor roll contest.

Grades 1, 3, and 4, were the winners in the last attendance contest. The losing grades will present a program with Arlene Sabatke acting as mistress of ceremonies.—Duane Klatt, Alice Frankenstein, Arlene Sabatke, and Grace Matuseski, participated in a judging contest sponsored by Hoard's Dairymen recently. Although they did not place as winners they received exceedingly high ratings in the order in which they are named above.

Mrs. Herman Kraus observed classes at our school April 20-24 as the "Refresher" course she is taking.—Mrs. Art Sennhenn was our visitor May 21st. Mrs. Sennhenn is a Columbus resident.—Alice Frankenstein received her eighth grade diploma at the graduation exercises at Juneau May 17th. Grace Matuseski represented our school and received the beautiful Stars and Stripes presented by the Legion.

All of our children earned honor seals in reading circle work this year. Arlene Sabatke, Juanita Baker, Harold Frey and Kenenth Schroeder completed the most reports.

Alfred Affeldt, Sr., has purchased Defense Bonds for both of his sons enrolled at the school: Alfred, Jr. and Gerald—Mrs. Hermanson and Miss Miller attended classes in cooperative marketing at Milwaukee May 28 and 29.
