

Jackson School Will Give Home Talent Program

Several Special Featured Numbers
Will be Presented at Club 33
on January 24.

The Jackson school program, home talent plays and dance will be held at Club 33 January 24 beginning at 8 p. m. The school children and young people of the district have been rehearsing for the past several weeks for the presentation.

Numbers to be presented by the school children are "The Stupid Witness," "Domestic Wanted," "Dot Entertains," "Kid Sister" and "Meeting of Celebrities." There will be a contest for the paper-weight championship of the Jackson school with "Slugger" Schroeder, 49 lbs., boxing "Fighting" Frey, 47 lbs. Joyce Bilke will be the announcer; seconds are Donald Bilke and Duane Klatt and the judges will be the Messrs. Glenn Matuseski, Rodney Sabatke and Alfred Affeldt.

The four comedy plays to be presented by the young people of the district are "When Do We Eat?" with Eldean Zuehlke and Gilbert Hammer; "Two Coons in a Wreck" with Eugene Keske and Norman Bilke appearing in the cast; "The Hick Honeymoon" with Harley Haase, Cecelia Keske, Eldean Zuehlke, Vernon Bilke and Warren Bilke enacting the roles; and "Henry's Mail Order Wife" in which appear Harley Haase, Bernard Linde, Cecelia Keske, Gilbert Hammer, Bernard Bilke, Marion Roth.

There will be music by a swing orchestra for the dance which follows. Admission charges will be 10 and 25 cents.

The program is under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Stella Hermanson. 1-10-1944